The company is limited by guarantee not having a share capital.

Mission, Objectives and Strategy

Objectives

Transparency International (Ireland) CLG focussed on delivering on two objectives during 2020 which can be summarised as follows:

Objective 1: Building on the work we have done in establishing our Speak Up and Integrity at Work services so that we can meet public demand for legal advice and information, support whistleblowers and witnesses, develop our range of tools and client services, and produce high-quality analysis from our engagement with citizens.

Objective 2: Increasing Transparency International Ireland's ('TI Ireland') impact as an evidence-based advocacy organisation through delivering high quality research and analysis and through engagement nationwide with volunteers, members, citizens, experts, policy-makers and legislators.

Structure, Governance and Management

Transparency International (Ireland) CLG DIRECTORS' ANNUAL REPORT

for the financial year ended 31 December 2020

Financial Review

TI Ireland's financial affairs are managed by its Chief Executive, John Devitt and independent accountant, Angela Maguire. All supporting documentation is scanned and monthly cash-flow projections are available for inspection by Board Members, Ms. Maguire and our external auditors.

Our Board Finance Committees reviews income projections and expenditure and reports to the Board in advance of each meeting. In addition to the publication of our SORP compliant accounts, separate financial reports are provided to our donors and partners at Transparency International.

The results for the financial year are set out on page 10 and additional notes are provided showing income and expenditure in greater detail.

Financial Results

At the end of the financial year the company has assets of €96,118 (2019 - €54,545) and liabilities of €20,419 (2019 - €34,554). The net assets of the company have increased by €55,708.

Principal Risks and Uncertainties

On 31 December 2019, China alerted the World Health Organisation (WHO) to several cases of unusual pneumonia in Wuhan, a port city in the central Hubei province. In February 2020, the WHO officially named this new Coronavirus 'COVID-19' and on 11 March 2020 the WHO declared the coronavirus outbreak a pandemic. The initial impact of this has been severe and has resulted in a significant worldwide slowdown in economic activity. In Ireland, the economic impact of this pandemic has been characterised by the temporary closure of many businesses in "non-essential" areas to ensure that people's movements are restricted in order to slow down the spread of the virus. The effect of COVID-19 presents many risks for the company, particularly risks to the health, safety, and welfare of its workers. These risks cannot be fully quantified at the time of approving the financial statements. At the date of signing these accounts the long-term impact on the company is unknown.

Future Development

The company does not undertake research and development for the purpose of generating a profit. The directors are not expecting to make any significant changes in the nature of the business in the near future. At the time of approving the financial statements, the company is exposed to the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic and in particular the risks it poses to the health, safety and welfare of its workers. In planning its future activities, the directors will seek to develop the company's activities whilst managing the effects of the difficult trading period caused by this outbreak.

Directors and Secretary

The directors who served throughout the financial year, except as noted, were as follows:

Paul Donnelly (Appointed 24 February 2020)
Anne Marie Flynn
Siobhán McGee (Resigned 28 June 2021)
Olivia Lally
David Phelan
William Silke
Orla Veale (Appointed 18 May 2020)

Siobhán McGee retired on 28 June 2021.

In accordance with the Constitution, the directors retire by rotation and, being eligible, offer themselves for re-election.

The secretary who served throughout the financial year was Anne Marie Flynn.

Compliance with Sector-Wide Legislation and Standards

The company engages pro-actively with legislation, standards and codes which are developed for the sector. Transparency International (Ireland) CLG subscribes to and is compliant with the following:

- The Companies Act 2014
- The Charities SORP (FRS 102)

Transparency International (Ireland) CLG is compliant with relevant circulars including Circular: 44/2006 "Tax Clearance Procedures Grants, subsidies and Similar Type Payments" and DPE 022/05/2013 Circular: 13/2014 "Management of and Accountability for Grants from Exchequer Funds".

Post Balance Sheet Events

Since the beginning of 2021, the COVID-19 virus has continued to be a global problem. In common with many other countries, the Irish government issued guidance and new restrictions on the movement of people designed to slow the spread of this virus. In late December 2020 and early January 2021, many businesses closed and throughout the month more restrictions were placed on people and businesses. Effectively, all "non-essential" businesses were ordered to close temporarily. The impact on the company has been more limited use of the building with some staff working from home. At the time of approving the financial statements, while there is some uncertainty, the board are confident that there will not be a material impact on the future viability of the company.

Political Donations

The company does not give any political donations or encourage its staff to do so.

Reserves Policy

The company recognises the importance of having reserves in place. It is the intention of the company to grow its reserves where possible while at the same time complying with funders requirements regarding annual budget expenditure.

Main Activities and Achievements

During 2020, staff and volunteers delivered on the two objectives outlined above by providing support and advice to whistleblowers and witnesses as well as organisations through our Speak Up Helpline and Integrity at Work (IAW) programme. TI Ireland supported 309 clients during the year, providing information and referral advice to callers seeking to raise concerns about wrongdoing. Of those, 14 clients were referred to partner charity, the Transparency Legal Advice Centre (TLAC) which gave free legal advice to 11 new clients seeking to make protected disclosures.

This work is currently funded by the Department of Public Expenditure and Reform, individual donations, as well as income generated through the IAW programme.

TI Ireland published guidance on whistleblowing for workers and employers during the pandemic in April 2020. The guidance includes support and resources for anyone looking to report wrongdoing, ethical misconduct or health and safety risks in the workplace. During this period, former Garda Sergeant, Maurice McCabe also lent his support for this work by becoming a patron of TI Ireland and fronting a GoFundMe fundraising appeal to raise funds for TLAC to provide additional legal advice to whistleblowers. TI Ireland saw a rise in demand for its services after these events. Callers contacted the Speak Up Helpline seeking guidance on reporting health and safety concerns arising from the Pandemic as well as breaches of regulations enacted to mitigate the risk of COVID-19 transmission.

IAW Membership grew to 29 organisations when Daisyhouse Housing Association joined the initiative. IAW continued to help improve awareness and understanding of the Protected Disclosures Act (PDA) and best practice principles in responding to reports of wrongdoing by providing training to 349 senior staff across 20 IAW member organisations. Feedback forms received from participants indicated an average increase in knowledge of 95%. TI Ireland also launched a series of online workshops to inform employers, regulators and government departments about the requirements of the EU Whistleblowing Directive. TI Ireland held biannual IAW forums and its annual IAW Conference was transformed into a week-long series of webinars due to COVID-19 restrictions in 2020.

TI Ireland joined the sub-committee of the National Standards Authority (NSAI) Technical Committee 30 that is leading on providing inputs to ISO37000 guidance on whistleblowing management systems. It continued to support and engage with its colleagues at Transparency International Secretariat, TI-EU and its chapters in Europe and Africa, as well as international organisations such as the Council of Europe and the Open Society Foundations, by sharing its experience and knowledge around legal protections and whistleblowing frameworks.

TI Ireland published the third Speak Up Report based on data collected from over 566 callers to the Speak Up Helpline from 2017 to the beginning of 2020. The report found that the biggest volume of calls alleging whistleblower retaliation came from the health sector. Almost 40% of healthcare whistleblowers who contacted the Speak Up Helpline between 2017 and 2020 reported that they were penalised after raising concerns of wrongdoing. This is significantly higher than the average rates across all sectors (24%). Whistleblowers from the police sector reported similar rates of whistleblower retaliation (38%). The sector with the third highest rates of whistleblower reprisal was Banking and Finance (30%).

for the financial year ended 31 December 2020

This data along with its analysis on case law and emerging trends informed TI Ireland's submission on the transposition of the EU Whistleblowing Directive and the forthcoming Protected Disclosures (Amendment) Bill 2021. It has also shaped new tools and resources that are currently under development for organisations in responding to disclosures of wrongdoing.

In addition to supporting whistleblowers, TI Ireland undertook research and evidence-based advocacy aimed at promoting transparency and stopping corruption.

This included the development of methodology and data collection for the National Integrity Index Private Sector study which examined how well-prepared 30 leading Irish-based companies are to address corruption-related risks. This study provides a general overview of the corporate disclosure practices of Irish and Irish-based companies by assessing levels of corporate transparency, procedures against bribery and corruption, responsible political engagement, and whistleblowing frameworks. The report was due for publication in May 2021.

During 2020, TI Ireland also finalised its report titled 'Safe Haven? Targeting the Proceeds of Foreign Corruption in Ireland', which was due for publication in February 2021. The report examines the extent to which Ireland is prepared to detect, freeze and repatriate the proceeds of overseas corruption laundered through the Irish economy, in particular by senior public officials, their families and associates.

In early 2020, TI Ireland published the 2019 Corruption Perceptions Index which placed Ireland in 18th position of 180 countries ranked according to how international observers perceive relative levels of corruption around the world. Over the course of the year, TI Ireland also supported the work of the Open Government Association Ireland and is working in coalition with the Irish Council for Civil Liberties, Amnesty International Ireland and others to research and highlight restrictions on funding for NGO advocacy.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES STATEMENT

The directors are responsible for preparing the financial statements in accordance with applicable Irish law and regulations.

Irish company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under the law, the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the Companies Act 2014 and FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" issued by the Financial Reporting Council. Under company law, the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the assets, liabilities and financial position of the company as at the financial year end date and of the net income or expenditure of the company for the financial year and otherwise comply with the Companies Act 2014.

In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities (2015);
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the relevant financial reporting framework, identify those standards, and note the effect and the reasons for any material departure from those standards; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in operation.

The directors confirm that they have complied with the above requirements in preparing the financial statements.

The directors are responsible for ensuring that the company keeps or causes to be kept adequate accounting records which correctly explain and record the transactions of the company, enable at any time the assets, liabilities, financial position and net income or expenditure of the company to be determined with reasonable accuracy, enable them to ensure that the financial statements and the Directors' Annual Report comply with Companies Act 2014 and enable the financial statements to be audited. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In so far as the directors are aware:

- there is no relevant audit information (information needed by the company's auditor in connection with preparing the auditor's report) of which the company's auditor is unaware, and
- the directors have taken all the steps that they ought to have taken as directors in order to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the company's auditor is aware of that information.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

to the Members of Transparency International (Ireland) CLG

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

I have audited the company financial statements of Transparency International (Ireland) CLG for the financial year ended 31 December 2020 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities (incorporating an Income and Expenditure Account), the Balance Sheet, the Statement of Cash Flows and the notes to the financial statements, including the summary of significant accounting policies set out in note 2. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is Irish law and FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with FRS 102.

In my opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the assets, liabilities and financial position of the company as at 31 December 2020 and of its surplus for the financial year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland", as applied in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act 2014 and having regard to the Charities SORP; and
- have been properly prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2014.

Basis for Opinion

I conducted my audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (Ireland) (ISAs (Ireland)) and applicable law. My responsibilities under those standards are described below in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of my report. I am independent of the company in accordance with ethical requirements that are relevant to my audit of financial statements in Ireland, including the Ethical Standard for Auditors (Ireland) issued by the Irish Auditing and Accounting Supervisory Authority (IAASA), and the Provisions Available for Audits of Small Entities, in the circumstances set out in note 4 to the financial statements, and I have fulfilled my other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion.

Conclusions Relating to Going Concern

In auditing the financial statements, I have concluded that the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work I have performed, I have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from the date when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

My responsibilities and the responsibilities of the directors with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Other Information

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report other than the financial statements and my Auditor's Report thereon. My opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in my report, I do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

My responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or my knowledge obtained in the course of the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If I identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, I am required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work I have performed, I conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, I am required to report that fact. I have nothing to report in this regard.

Opinions on Other Matters Prescribed by the Companies Act 2014

In my opinion, based solely on the work undertaken in the course of the audit, I report that:

- the information given in the Directors' Annual Report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements; and
- I have obtained all the information and explanations which, to the best of my knowledge and belief, are necessary for the purposes of my audit.

In my opinion, the accounting records of the company were sufficient to permit the financial statements to be readily and properly audited. In my opinion the financial statements are in agreement with the accounting records.

Matters on Which I Am Required to Report by Exception

Based on the knowledge and understanding of the company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, I have not identified any material misstatements in the Directors' Annual Report. The Companies Act 2014 requires me to report to you if, in my opinion, the disclosures of directors' remuneration and transactions required by sections 305 to 312 of the Act are not complied with by the company. I have nothing to report in this regard.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

to the Members of Transparency International (Ireland) CLG

Respective Responsibilities

Responsibilities of Directors for the Financial Statements

As explained more fully in the Directors' Responsibilities Statement, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework that give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as they determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, if applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

My objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an Auditor's Report that includes my opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (Ireland) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Further Information Regarding the Scope of My Responsibilities As Auditor

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs (Ireland), I exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. I also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the company's ability to continue as a going concern. If I conclude that a material uncertainty exists, I am required to draw attention in my Auditor's Report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify my opinion. My conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of my Auditor's Report. However, future events or conditions may cause the company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

I communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that I identify during my audit.

The Purpose of My Audit Work and to Whom I Owe My Responsibilities

My report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Section 391 of the Companies Act 2014. My audit work has been undertaken so that I might state to the company's members those matters I am required to state to them in an Auditor's Report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume any responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members, as a body, for my audit work, for this report, or for the opinions I have formed.

18. POST-BALANCE SHEET EVENTS

Since the beginning of 2021, the COVID-19 virus has continued to be a global problem. In common with many other countries, the Irish government issued guidance and new restrictions on the movement of people designed to slow the spread of this virus. In late December 2020 and early January 2021, many businesses closed and throughout the month more restrictions were placed on people and businesses. Effectively, all "non-essential" businesses were ordered to close temporarily. The impact on the company has been more limited use of the building with some staff working from home. Whilst the company has remained operational there has been some reduction in income particularly self-generated income during the period of restrictions. At the time of approving the financial statements, while there is some uncertainty, the board are confident that with the assistance of state supports there will not be a material impact on the future viability of the company.
